Pastoral Ponderings

Grace is Always a Scandal

Labor Day afforded me and Jenna a chance to visit her family in Texas. And...perhaps a Badgers football game (let's not talk about the outcome). Our time with the Kulpinskis is always limited, so it was a soak-y'all-up trip.

Our plane ride departed for home in the early hours and my bones are getting closer to calcification (cattle joke) with each year so I figured the Spirit Airlines seats would be no refuge. I was correct. After tossing and turning, the Holy Spirit reminded me that I had downloaded the NIV version of the Bible on my phone and that I had lots of time on my hands. Disclaimer: admittedly, this prompting was not my lazy flesh. But, as always, the Lord stood ready for a date!

I opened to the book of John; soon I came to the story of the Samaritan woman at the water well (John 4:1-26). I've read this story many times before. But, this time the Lord reminded me that His grace is always a scandal. In other words, by any other metric in the universe, grace does not happen. Yet, for His glory and the building of His kingdom, grace is essential.

Let's count a few of the scandals. First, she was Samaritan, He was a Jew. Jews didn't associate with Samaritans. Yet, Jesus did. She was a woman. Yet, Jesus still spoke to her. Next, He offers her living water, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water," (John 4:10). This is scandalous because Jesus didn't claim to be just a prophet - He claimed to be King! He could offer living water. This irked the Pharisees constantly. Then, Jesus calls out her life story. She's had five husbands and currently is living with another man unwed. Jesus wraps up the interaction by declaring that He is the Christ (John 4:26) - the living water, the grace that covers sin.

This story hit me because my life in Christ is a constant scandal. The result of my sin is death without the covering grace of Christ. Scandalous.

Announcements and Events:

NEW KITCHEN UPDATE

Praise the Lord! The Building and grounds would like to announce that on October 4th we will be opening up our new kitchen - Lord willing!!!

Welcome to our Newest Addition!

Praise the Lord! Timothy and Missy Johnson had a healthy little baby girl September 17th. Let's all welcome Ember Jean Johnson to our New Life community! As is our tradition here at New Life, let's begin showering them with newborn diapers. Watch for the hamper at the front entrance of the building.

OSCEOLA FOOD SHELF

The Backpack Program through Osceola Food Shelf is in full swing. The items that New Life is assigned to bring are packets of muffins and pancake mix, (no boxes please since they do take up space.) Please bring your donations to the collection container at the front entrance of New Life.

HANDS and FEET for JESUS

Are you looking for a way to get involved? Perhaps joining a meal team to assist in providing one of the wonderful meals we enjoy each week would be a great place to start or perhaps you are a baker and just want to contribute to the desert table. Maybe clean-up is your thing. If you want more information and want to discuss the level of commitment that would work best for you, contact Barb Manship.

Fellowship follows our service every Sunday, along with a great meal.
Please stay and join us!

More Events to take Note of:

A GRANDSLAM END TO SOFTBALL

REMINDER FOR TODAY! Sunday, September 20th, New Life and Alliance will play our last game for the season at 3:30pm at Alliance. Afterwards, we will join together for a cookout to celebrate a wonderful summer. The whole church is invited to come play or watch the game, and join in the fellowship following the game. Please bring chairs, and something to share with the group.

IMMERSE FAMILY GROUP STUDIES

Come and join us Wednesday evenings at the building starting at 6:30 p.m. We have studies to fit every age group, nursery through adult. We conclude at approximately 7:45 p.m. so that adults can pick up their children before 8:00 p.m. The first Wednesday of each month is dedicated to Worship.

TRAIN RIDE FUND RAISER

Mark your calendars now! The Annual Train Ride will be October 24th! It was such a beautiful day last year to be on the train. Bring your friends and family and enjoy a 90 minute scenic ride from Osceola to the Marine and back! On board, treat your family to a lunch provided by Polk County Mobile Pack (free will donation) All proceeds will go to the Polk County Mobile Pack Event.

Logistics for our Visitors and Guests

If you happen to miss a Greeter as you came in, here are a few tidbits of information to help you feel comfortable:

- The rest rooms are located on the North walls behind the nursery or in our worship/service area.
- The Nursery is always available for infants to preschool aged children East of entrance.
- Busy-bags for young kids are hanging from pegs on the offering box at entrance to service area, (please return after service.)
- We do not collect offerings but if you wish to make an offering, a wooden box is by the entrance to our service area.
- Until our kitchen is ready, our fellowship meal is being served at the very back of our service area, just follow the line!
