SUNDAY MEAL MINISTRY

New Life Meals are a valuable part of our Sunday fellowship together after Sunday service. This time together allows members, visitors and guests an opportunity to visit together, to foster creative ministry ideas and plans, to exchange experience's, to share personal and spiritual needs. And often brings the church community and extended community together creating a stronger sense of community and family.

These meals are put together by meal teams. The Sunday Meal Ministry is made up of 8 teams and each team will serve 6 times during the year. Volunteers on the meal teams serve by bringing and serving food as well as clean-up. The teams can always use extra hands to take part with clean-up. Emptying garbage containers, checking family center and classrooms for trash, sweep floors, wipe down tables, wash dishes and wipe off counters. Each team takes on a big roll each Sunday, and we want it to be a joyful service so extra helping hands are always welcomed. This is a good way for the teens to get involved.

The first Sunday of the month, is the beginning of the summer meal schedule which is June 2nd. No meal on the following Sunday, June 9th. Every other Sunday we will have a meal through August. Picnic in the Park is June 23rd. Schedules for meals and teams are available on the table in the entry.

Dates to remember:

Picnic in the Park, June 23rd (At Dresser Park.)

Baptism Sunday, August 4th (At the ARC, bring your own picnic lunch for after the service.)

If anyone would be interested in putting together a Potluck meal team, to set up items that are provided and to organize clean up, please contact someone on the list below. This would be so helpful to have consistency at the Communion Sunday meals.

The Meal team coordinators always need new volunteer's to cover for someone who cannot be available on their normally scheduled date. We appreciate anybody who would be able to fill in occasionally to cover for a team member who can't serve. Or even to just help occasionally on clean-up.
